4.a. Rationale

The indicator is relevant because it reflects the health situation in Burundi.

4.b. Comment and limitations

Updating the indicator requires exhaustive collection in health facilities. For most of the data, data from private health facilities are not taken into account.

4.c. Method of computation

(Number of pregnant women who tested positive for HIV who are on PMTCT during a given period divided by the total number of women who tested positive for HIV during that same period) multiplied by 100.

4.d. Validation

The results of the data collection are validated at two levels: internal validation and validation at the CTIS level before publication

5. Data availability and disaggregation

The indicator is available at national level.

6. Comparability/deviation from international standards

The indicator can be compared to other indicators of the same type at regional and international level
